

Weber Arctic Expeditions
Baffin Island Helicopter Skiing
Clyde River, Nunavut, Canada
April 2017

Day 1: Arrive mid-afternoon in Clyde river and settle into the Naujaaraaluit Hotel and visit the community. Safety briefing and introduction to helicopter skiing routes followed by in-house dinner prepared by our in house chef Justin Tse, and a demonstration of drum dancing by local inuit performer.

Day 2: All day heli-skiing

Day 3: All day heli-skiing

Day 4: All day heli-skiing

Day 5: The community of Clyde River & surrounding area holds a unique inuit culture & Arctic wildlife. Today's focus is on exactly that. A day of dog sledding, throat singing, drum dancing and take a traditional dog team to look for polar bears on the Baffin bay ocean sea ice.

Day 6: All day heli-skiing

Day 7: Wake up to a final breakfast and board a First Air flight back to Ottawa.

Cost: $21,00 CAD per person (GST applicable), from Ottawa

Limited to 8 guests

April 2017

Deposit required to reserve: 20%

Note: All excursions and activities are dependent on weather conditions, desires, abilities and interests of guests as well as local wildlife viewing conditions. Guides reserve the right to cancel or modify a trip at anytime.

Weber Arctic Expeditions

www.WeberArctic.com

+1-819-923-0932